

This avalanche was triggered on Saturday (2/20). It is 3-6 feet deep on a north facing slope at 10,200' on Scotch Bonnet outside Cooke City. No one was caught. The debris was hard wind slabs and the weak layer was surface hoar, seen as a stripe in the snowpit wall. Photo: GNFAC

Advisory Region
Cooke City

Forecast link: GNFAC Avalanche Advisory for Tue Feb 23, 2016GNFAC Avalanche Advisory for Wed Feb 24, 2016

Cooke City, 2016-02-22